

Echo Bay

Marlborough

2019 SAUVIGNON BLANC

NEW ZEALAND

GREAT VALUE

92

POINTS

“One of our favorite global winemakers is Nick Goldschmidt, who really gets this variety. From the tip of the tongue to mid-palate and finish, tropical fruit abounds – as well as the perfume of ripe pineapple and lemon verbena. The palate is crisp, tart and refreshing. Sage and dill tickle the tongue, while star fruit anoints it. Acidity offers up an internal energy. Great value.”

– Meredith May

THE
tastingpanel
MAGAZINE

September/October 2020